

< Greetings from Chairperson NAYA >

< Talk by Yuka-sensei >

Everyone, thank you sincerely for participating in the “Ceremony for Opening the Door to Human Divinity.”

I am also deeply grateful to all of you who came to join us today.

This “Ceremony for Opening the Door to Human Divinity” is now the only ceremony held twice a year at Fuji Sanctuary.

To be able to pray together with all of you in this ceremony fills my soul with the deepest joy.

I believe that the words “to open the Divine” have two great meanings.

The first is that, in this precious age, this ceremony is for us to open the Door of the Divine World through the greater power of prayer, so that together we may create a world in which everyone lives manifesting their divinity.

The second is that it is a ceremony for each of us to open more and more the door of divinity within ourselves.

I truly believe that we can do this.

Looking back, until a few years ago, the “Ceremony for Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe” was held every month.

Those of you who joined recently may not know this, but during those days, at the very end of that ceremony, there was something that Masami-sensei always did.

It was a promise between GOI-sensei and Masami-sensei: when the Ultimate Light of the Universe was about to descend, she would say, “Each of you, strongly wish for one thing that you truly desire to be fulfilled.

For those of you who are praying earnestly, it will surely come to Great Fulfillment (Dai-jouju).”

And at her signal, everyone would receive the Ultimate Light of the Universe together.

Some of you may feel, “That special moment no longer exists.” However, it has not disappeared.

As we have evolved and grown, as we open more and more the door of our own divinity, the wider it opens, the less we depend on that specific moment.

Now, in our daily lives, we can instantly receive it anytime, anywhere, by ourselves.

It was a sacred promise between GOI-sensei and Masami-sensei that they would bring down the Ultimate Light of the Universe, and now, a new mission has been bestowed upon us—to open the “Door to Human Divinity,” which leads to the simultaneous enlightenment of individuals and all humankind.

Each of us is now fulfilling our Divine Mission toward that goal.

Looking back, I recall how profoundly precious and meaningful the process of the “Ceremony for Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe” was to me.

Some of you might think, “I’ve never experienced that,” but please rest assured.

All the records, memories, and Light of those ceremonies are stored here at Fuji Sanctuary.

Allow me to take this time to share once again the key points I learned in those days.

When I was told, “Anything you wish for will come true,”—I’ve mentioned this before—I once made a wish that was, let’s say, a little off the right path.

Please forgive me; I was young at the time.

Every human being needs a process of growth and learning. We internalize the great truths of life through our own personal experiences.

And within that process, when things go well—or when they don’t quite fit—we naturally begin to ask, “Why is that?”

That spirit of inquiry is part of the straight path toward Truth and an essential experience for everyone.

At that time, when I heard, “Anything will come true,” I prayed, “Since the final exams are coming soon, may all my test scores be above 70 points.” I apologize for the trivial nature of this story.

Back then, I didn’t think I could aim for 90 points, so I sincerely wished for “at least 70 points.”

I prayed with full faith, convinced that it would surely come true.

I truly believed, “It will definitely happen. It’s all right.”

And I took the test with that conviction.

But when I actually took the test, I thought, “Hmm, this is a bit difficult. No, it’s fine. It will be okay.”

Then, when the answer sheets were returned, every single score was failing.

With scores around 40 or 60 points, none were over 70.

So I thought to myself, “Huh? What just happened?”

Even though the results were like that, I still truly believed.

I knew that Truth is One.

Thankfully, I held that deep conviction and never doubted the teachings of Masami-sensei or GOI-sensei, nor the Truth that has now descended to us.

At that moment, I thought to myself, “What was wrong with the way I understood the Truth?”

Even though I had been told, “It’s all right!” with such conviction, and I had prayed so earnestly at the very moment when the Ultimate Light of the Universe was descending, saying, “May all my test scores be above 70 points!”, I wondered, “Why didn’t my wish come true?”

Then I realized, “Wait a second—wasn’t my wish just blind dependence on God, without any self-effort?”

When I asked myself, “Did I make any effort to score over 70 points?”, I realized I hadn’t studied at all.

The moment I saw that, the path before me began to open.

I understood: “That’s where I went wrong, isn’t it? Why do I study in the first place? Why do we have tests? Why do we learn?”

At that moment, I realized that my wish had been one of trying to get what I wanted easily, without engaging in the true learning that life requires.

I came to see that “such misguided wishes will never be fulfilled.”

Later, when another occasion came to make a wish again, I remembered my past experience, and a slightly mischievous thought crossed my mind toward Masami-sensei, who had said, “Anything will come true.”

During the time of the Olympics, I thought, “If everyone in this hall were to pray together, saying, ‘May all the Japanese athletes win gold medals at the Olympics—Dai-jouju (Great Fulfillment)!’, what would happen? Would it really come true?”

Such a thought came to me.

And again, through that reflection, I realized something.

As I continued to contemplate these things, asking myself, “What is the purpose of a gold medal? What is the meaning of passing a test? What do I really want to achieve through that?”, I came to understand deeply that we are not living on a frequency that seeks to achieve things effortlessly or walk the easiest path simply for our own pleasure.

What made me realize this was an experience I had when I was overwhelmed by too many wishes.

I couldn’t decide on just one, and I thought, “Never mind. Today, I’ll simply pray for world peace. May Peace Prevail on Earth.”

That day, during the time of “Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe,” I focused solely on the vibration of the Prayer for World Peace—and it felt incredibly pure and uplifting.

Through that experience, I realized what kind of wish most truly aligns with the Truth.

At that moment, I was able to become one with my True Heart.

And I deeply realized that “this is what my soul had been longing for.”

This experience was truly a blessing.

I came to clearly understand that what my true self—united with the frequency of the Divine Beings—wishes and desires to fulfill is completely different from what my thinking self, my daily-life self, or my ego (self-centered mind) desires.

Come to think of it, Masami-sensei used to say the following during the time of Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe:

“All of you who are praying so earnestly for the peace of the world will surely see everything align perfectly.

Why? Because you are already performing such tremendous divine work. That is why GOI-sensei, as a blessing and as a reward for your service, has given you this sacred time.”

Recalling these words within myself, the more I reflected on the practice of Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe, the more I naturally returned in that very moment to the vibration of the words, “May Peace Prevail on Earth.”

When I was young, my thoughts were filled with things like “I want to get married,” “I want a boyfriend,” or “May everything go well at university.” I was desperately wishing and seeking for these things from a place outside the vibration of Truth.

I openly confessed to God, “I was trying to use that sacred moment to make things easy for myself and fulfill my personal desires!”

And as I returned to the vibration of the Prayer for World Peace, my wishes and hopes naturally began to be fulfilled one by one.

The more I prayed, “May I continue to send out the vibration of the Prayer for World Peace to the world,” and “May my mission be fulfilled in a straight and pure way,” the more I realized that those moments were already peaceful, blissful, and entirely fulfilled.

Then, without even wishing for them, things far beyond my original desires began to appear before me.

When we pray within that great vibration of the Prayer for World Peace, we can effortlessly create reality—not from the strained energy of “I want to achieve this,” “I want to surpass others,” “I want to prove myself,” or “I want to be free,” but from a completely different, serene state of being.

The more I entered deeply into the vibration of “May Peace Prevail on Earth,” the more I was guided to feel the vibration of the Divine Beings, the loving guidance of the Guardian Spirits and Guardian Deities, and to realize little by little, “Everything is absolutely all right. Everything has already been prepared and arranged.”

Therefore, I believe that in this “Ceremony for Opening the Door to Human Divinity,” in which we participate after such experiences, fulfilling our wishes through Divine Consciousness is a wonderful opportunity for the simultaneous enlightenment of individuals and all humanity.

Each time, within the Great Fulfillment (Dai-jouju) vibration of Fuji Sanctuary, praying earnestly for the peace of each nation one by one, and offering the Light of Divinity through our physical bodies—this is truly the joy of our souls and the very moment when we are fulfilling our Divine Mission.

And I can now be certain: “At the very moment I am given such an opportunity, I am already fulfilled. I am filled with joy. I am fulfilling my Divine Mission.”

At this time, when the Light of everyone’s prayers is concentrated, the Divine Beings are arranging everything through our vessels. This is why we can live more and more with Divinity First.

If we continually deepen our awareness of living with Divinity First, everything will absolutely reach Great Fulfillment (Dai-jouju).

No matter how things may appear to the physical eyes, the conviction that “My Divine Mission is surely being fulfilled” becomes stronger and stronger, endlessly growing.

For me, the time of the “Ceremony for Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe” became a time of touching more and more the very essence of Truth.

By placing side by side “the vibration I am sending out” and “the reason for the Great Fulfillment I am seeking,” I was able to reflect: “Why was I wishing for this? Why did I feel I needed it so much?”

Looking back in this way, I could clearly see that such desires were off the true path—they came from the ego of my physical self, from my mind wanting ease, or from feelings of envy toward someone else.

Instead of such self-centered wishes, our soul's mission—Divinity—is the simultaneous enlightenment of individuals and all humanity, the peace of the world, happiness for all people, and the vision of everyone living in peace.

Within that lies our own personal happiness.

Fulfilling this path of simultaneous enlightenment of individuals and all humanity is my true happiness, my joy, my heart's desire, and my Divine Mission.

By bringing this true awareness to the forefront and approaching the “Ceremony for Opening the Door to Human Divinity” with it, Great Fulfillment comes to the world and to us.

Now, we no longer need to wait for Masami-sensei to bring down the Ultimate Light of the Universe.

As we sincerely do what we are called to do now, the Ultimate Light of the Universe descends in response to the Light of our own prayers.

Thus, we are receiving divine guidance, inspiration, and protection from the Deities.

The vibration of Great Fulfillment (Dai-jouju) descending from the Ultimate Source of the Universe is truly passing through our physical bodies at this very moment.

This shows that we have elevated the frequency of our consciousness to the level of Divine Consciousness, becoming beings of Divinity itself, and that we are now able to participate in the ceremony through that divine vibration—one that is united with the vibration of the Deities.

It is precisely for this reason that I now deeply realize why the “Ceremony for Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe” has been upgraded to the “Ceremony for Opening the Door to Human Divinity.”

We already possess the magnificent power of Great Fulfillment that transcends the former stage of bringing down the Ultimate Light of the Universe and realizing our desires through it.

We are already capable, at any time, of bringing down, experiencing, and embodying the Ultimate Light of the Universe.

That is why I would like to remind everyone once again that it is precisely for this reason that this ceremony exists today.

With joy in praying together, let us now, in this very moment, with our entire being, pray for the Great Fulfillment of all humanity beyond ourselves, of Mother Nature, and of all living beings.

We have each chosen and decided to be here at this time, so let us now unite our sincere consciousness.

This collective consciousness will radiate here the Light of the very essence of the Prayer for World Peace.

I am filled with infinite gratitude and joy.
Everyone, thank you very much for today.

<Time to Pray for Japan and Each Continent of the World, Forming the Divine Spark IN for Each Nation and Region>

【Message from Yuka-sensei and Maki-sensei during the Main Program】

【Yuka-sensei】

At this very moment, together with the Deities, we are co-creating the future of the New Earth.

Please deepen that awareness as you proceed with the following part of the ceremony.

【Maki-sensei】

Right now, everyone gathered here is a Shin-jin.

All of you are “Divine Humanity,” written as Person of God (Hito of Kami). Even though many things may be happening elsewhere, while we are here, we are simply praying for one thing—“May Peace Prevail on Earth.” The Deities, too, are always praying for the peace of the world.

In this way, the Deities and we ourselves are co-creating through this shared prayer.

To say that we are co-creating with the Deities means that, through these sacred words of prayer, the vibration of Divinity within us becomes one with the vibration of the Deities’ divine activity, transforming that vibration into one that resonates within the human world and sending it forth into this world.

No matter what may happen, we are now able to pray sincerely from the heart, not as disappearing forms of the past, but with the pure wish, “May the world be at peace.”

Such a state of being is nothing other than Divinity itself—it is God in human form.

That is why this time of sincere prayer opens more and more the Door of Divinity within us.

This is a time when we can deeply feel that we ourselves are Divine Beings, a time to manifest that Divinity—and a time when we can bring peace to the world.

I offer my heartfelt gratitude for being able to share such sacred moments together with so many Shin-jin.

We will now begin the prayers for each country of the world. Everyone, let us cherish this precious time of praying together, and continue to offer our prayers.

Let us co-create with God, connect with the Divinity within, and pray for the peace of the world.

Thank you very much.

< Time to Engrave the Awareness of “Divinity First” within Ourselves >

【Yuka-sensei】

Everyone, thank you so much for your truly sacred prayers.

We will now take a short time of silence.

During this time, please listen closely with the ear of your heart.

Within Divine Consciousness, close your eyes and, as if returning once again into the consciousness of the Great Deities, feel vividly the Divinity overflowing within your own body at this very moment.

As Maki-sensei says, as long as we human beings live, we will inevitably encounter various “forms that are disappearing” and be faced with them. Yet at such times, if we simply return to the vibration of our own Divinity—clearly felt and alive within us at this very moment—then even when our hearts seem about to waver, if we can recall and hold on to this sensation, the conviction that “Everything will surely be all right!” will arise naturally from within.

And when we immerse ourselves entirely in the vibration of the Prayer for World Peace, everything that needs to be harmonized will naturally become harmonized—so there is nothing to worry about.

In order to feel our own Divinity moment by moment in everyday life, it is essential—just as today, right after praying here at Fuji Sanctuary—that when we become completely one with the vibration of the Deities, we take time to look within ourselves, to recognize clearly and embrace the Divinity shining brightly inside us. That is the key.

I have many lessons from the former “Ceremony for Bringing Down the Ultimate Light of the Universe,” but let me share one more.

When Masami-sensei gave us, here at Fuji Sanctuary, the opportunity to “think freely about anything you wish for,” I realized how often, in my daily life, I had been deducting points from myself—limiting my own wishes, joy, and happiness by thinking, “It’s impossible anyway,” and thus preventing myself from grasping them.

The very moment I became aware of that, I entered the vibration of the Prayer for World Peace while embracing all of my feelings.

It was then, for the first time, that the infinite freedom and the infinite creative power within me began to open.

Conversely, the more I allowed myself to be carried away by the everyday flow of common sense and ordinary life, the more I understood how much of that infinite Divine power had been closed within me.

Through such experiences, I came to realize how, in daily life, I had been limiting myself—thinking “I’m not worth that much,” “I don’t have that much power,” “I don’t have that much ability,” “I can’t go that far,” “I’m not allowed to”—and how deeply I had been restricting myself day by day.

If we continue to nurture the self that could sincerely say, “I entered the Divine World together with the Deities,” “I prayed for the Divine Reawakening,” and “I truly felt one with God,” then we will be able to recognize that we are worthy of it.

When we fully acknowledge ourselves, forgive ourselves, and love ourselves, we can rejoice, saying, “I have become happy,” and gain the confidence that “I can accomplish this” and “I am worthy of it.”

The Deities will surely bring perfect harmony to such a self.

Why? Because with such pure hearts we have, at this very moment, sent

Light to billions of people together with the vibration of God.

When we fulfill this sacred role, rejoice in ourselves, and recognize our being, we naturally become gentler toward ourselves in daily life—we love ourselves more, appreciate ourselves more, and, through such continual awareness, we return again to the realization, “I am one with the Deities.”

Even when forms that are disappearing appear in daily life, if we have once experienced the vibration of returning to Divinity, we can always return there—no matter the circumstance.

Within that state, the vibration of the Prayer for World Peace resonates throughout our entire being, and we can firmly grasp the realization that “All is perfect, nothing is lacking, Great Fulfillment (Dai-jouju)!”

In this way, we become aware that a strong conviction—“The Deities will absolutely bring everything into divine order”—is overflowing once again from our own Divinity.

Therefore, now once again, connect solely with yourself—who, in this very moment, is fully manifesting, shining, vibrant, and filled with the infinite power of Love, Light, Peace, and Harmony that has been shared with all humanity.

Let us take time together to feel that “Before all else, this self was Divine!” Gently close your eyes and offer within yourself the Prayer for World Peace:

“Sekai Jin-rui ga Heiwa de ari-masu you-ni.”

“Nippon ga Heiwa de ari-masu you-ni.”

“Watakushi-tachi no Ten-mei ga mattou sare-masu you-ni.”

“Shugo-Rei-sama, arigatou gozaimasu. Shugo-Jin-sama, arigatou gozaimasu.”

Continue breathing slowly within that vibration.

With each exhalation, relax your strength and feel yourself together with the Deities.

With each breath in and out, quietly feel the shining Divinity within you.

Your Divine Self is completely one with the vibration of the Deities, working together with Them—it is the very Light of radiant Divinity itself.

This Divine Self knows that all is absolutely all right and, in any situation, can continue to feel and radiate Love, Light, and Truth from within.

When the vibration of Divinity begins to manifest on the surface, all the clusters of thought and emotion start to dissolve.

Please feel the sensation of returning to the great embrace of the Deities—their love, their tenderness, and their infinite compassion.

Then, remember, “I am also a part of that; I am the very vibration of the Deities,” and simply feel the vibration of Divinity within yourself.

You can do this.

Relax, and receive the magnificent Light that is pouring down from Heaven and rising from the Earth.

Feel deeply the gratitude and love coming from Heaven and from the Earth, and within that vibration, feel yourself completely united as One.

Love yourself more and more.

Trust yourself.

Be grateful to yourself.

Forgive yourself.

And in this moment, please feel deeply that “My Divinity comes first” and “That is who I truly am.”

May Peace Prevail on Earth.

Hai, everyone—thank you very much.

Right after praying together like this, please feel the shining Divinity within yourself.

The more you become someone who can recall this feeling at any time, in any circumstance, the more Divinity will manifest directly before you, and the more you will be able to feel it continually.

The more we open the door of our own Divinity and experience it, the more surely Divinity will begin to manifest in the world itself.

I truly believe that this time is very near.

I express my heartfelt gratitude for everyone’s sacred prayers, your divine work, and your very presence today.

Thank you very much.

< Message from Masami-sensei >

Everyone, good day to you. How wonderful it is to see you again. I have been watching each and every one of you from behind on television for a long time.

(The television in Masami-sensei's room shows the sacred altar.)

As I watched you all carrying out the ceremony with such dedication, my eyes filled with tears.

Seeing you sitting on the lawn, earnestly following what the Chairperson and my daughters are doing—forming the INs beautifully and expressing the words—I deeply thought to myself, “What a truly blessed human being I am.”

Each and every one of your precious lives is not yours alone. When I look at you through the television, I can see Light streaming constantly from behind you.

That Light is the Light from the Divine Spark INs you form, the vibration of praying for World Peace, which you have already accumulated within your hearts, now naturally overflowing, spilling out from your bodies into the space of this world, saving many people.

Today, for the first time, I have seen this with my own eyes. And I have felt it.

When you come in person to Fuji Sanctuary, and together with me, with the Chairperson, the board members, and all the staff, you pray and form the IN, that becomes Light for all humanity and reaches the entire world.

Your existence is truly sacred.

Among you there may be some who think of themselves, “I’m no good,” “I can’t do it,” “I’m already old,” “I can’t walk,” or who dwell on various such negative thoughts.

However, as I watch you on television, from your earnest forming of the INs, Light is overflowing and being sent out to the entire world.

The people of the world must surely be moved. They are grateful. (We are already receiving daily the vibrations of gratitude from the Guardian Spirits and Guardian Deities of all humanity.)

And the weather and the climate are severe, aren't they?

The problems are not only with humankind.

Looking at the television now, truly the temperatures are rising, the Earth is becoming very hot, countries everywhere are unsettled, various events are happening, eruptions are occurring.

Yet what truly supports this work, rehabilitates humanity, and restores the natural environment is the earnest INs and prayers of each and every one of you.

It is your very existence itself.

Without your physical presence, the IN cannot be formed.

The fact that you are living, with physical bodies, is itself sacred.

The sight of you forming the IN with your physical bodies, devoting yourselves for others and for humanity, is bringing eternal happiness to you as well.

Therefore, you will never die suffering from illness and the like.

When your time of age has come, you will be told, "You have fulfilled enough," and GOI-sensei's Great Divine Light Group will descend, and GOI-sensei, the central Light, will gently hold you and your soul will be carried swiftly into the Divine World.

The quiet daily prayers for peace that you have been offering, the Divine Spark INs you form here together, the prayers for the tectonic plates of the world, and the prayers for peace for the nations—those who are doing such things are exceedingly rare, even if you look across the whole world.

It is only those praying across various parts of the world, and you who are here now.

Your existence is truly extraordinary. Please, tell this firmly to your own soul.

You are using your very existence for humanity, for the Earth, for the polluted air, for the warming planet.

The world is being destroyed by the greed of humankind, by bombs and wars, by many things that are breaking the waters and destroying the Earth.

It is you who are compensating for this—the individuals here, and the prayer members who are not physically present.

I have just now been clearly told this by GOI-sensei.

You may think that you are simply praying like this without much thought.

Yet, the reason you wish to form the IN is because your own heart calls you to do so.

If you did not wish to form it, you would not.

Because the desire “I want to form the IN” arises from your hearts, you are all forming the Divine Spark IN.

Having continued to do this over a long time, your souls have now become one with GOI-sensei and the Universal God, and this is appearing in your physical forms.

Therefore, you are the leaders for the billions of people of the world.

You are not merely ordinary people.

We do not pray only for Japan.

We pray for the suffering of all humanity, for the suffering of the Earth, the oceans, the mountains, the suffering of poverty, and the suffering of every war.

By praying “May Peace Prevail on Earth” and continuing to form the Divine Spark IN, you are enveloping all of these in the vibration of your love.

Your thoughts, your contemplations, your forming of the IN—even if you think your physical body is doing it because you are in a physical body now—whatever you think, whatever you speak, whatever you do for others, it becomes the vibrational archetype of form, becoming Light, becoming a spiritual resonance which the Deities carry throughout the entire world.

Therefore, Japan is truly at peace now.

Why? Because Japan has the largest number of members.

Japan is truly now the most blessed country in the world—a country respected by the whole world.

I too have traveled around the world.

People of the world say, “I want to go to Japan,” “Japan is wonderful,” “When you go to Japan, everyone is kind.”

All the more, you are praying for “Peace and Great Harmony for all.”

It is truly a great effort to come to Fuji Sanctuary.

It is far from your homes—coming from Tohoku, from Hokkaido, from Kyushu, from many places with the will to come—the preciousness of that intention!

That is the appearance of living together with God, GOI-sensei, and your Guardian Spirits and Guardian Deities.

And from your hearts overflowing with love, for the sake of saving humanity, you are saying, “I am happy now. I can go. Therefore, I will go.” Some even come from overseas.

Alongside your precious practice of forming the IN and praying at home, when you pray together with many people like this, that energy becomes 100 times, 1,000 times, 10,000 times more powerful, turning into an immense Light of salvation, a Light of joy, delivered to the nations of the world and to all people.

For a long time you have been praying in GOI-sensei’s group, saying “May Peace Prevail on Earth” and forming the Divine Spark IN. You are doing something truly, truly sacred as if it were the most natural thing.

Seeing that, I watched television with tears, with palms together, bowing down.

How blessed I am—to be supported by such people, to share Truth with others.

From now on I plan to go out into the world.

People are divided by borders, but in the end I want to remove those borders.

When the borders disappear, all humanity will be equal and one. That time is drawing near.

Your prayers for peace, your prayers for the Earth, your gratitude for all living beings, your gratitude for the great Earth—there are very few people in the world who are doing this.

I have been watching all of you from behind on television.

The television does not show the front, so I have been watching you from behind all this time.

Today, so many of you have gathered.

It is truly a blessing—so precious indeed.

Such noble people are offering their prayers, and that is why this year, and toward the coming year, Japan will remain in peace.

Yet now, even the climate of Japan has become strange.

All around the world, all humanity—the weather is becoming unstable, the land is changing, the seas are becoming rough, and great volcanic eruptions are appearing.

But as long as you continue to pray and form the IN at your homes, and continue to offer the Prayer for World Peace, there will be peace.

It is you who are saving the world.

You are the ones bringing salvation.

In your daily lives—eating, living, going to school, going to work—there may be many problems, troubles, children's issues, family discord, and other challenges.

But all of these are truly minor things.

From within you, prayer is overflowing.

The vibration of your prayers reaches me, and I can feel it.

Your waves of gratitude come to me, and that is how I know.

That is why I say, Japan is the nation that saves humanity.

Now, as Japan also becomes hotter and as typhoons and rough seas appear in various places, your prayers and our INs will bring salvation. Through them, the world will be guided to peace.

People all over the world wish to come to Japan.

Now, people from over one hundred countries—too many to count—are coming to Japan.

Everyone is happy and joyful, buying souvenirs and returning home with smiles.

Troubles rarely occur in Japan.

Why is that?

Because there are people like you—those who sit upon the Earth, who pray together with us, and who form the IN.

Those INs and prayers are all for humanity, for the peace of all nations on Earth.

That is our sacred purpose.

(We desire nothing else.)

GOI-sensei is offering gratitude to the Guardian Spirits and Guardian Deities standing behind each of you.

And many Deities are giving thanks as well.

Your existence is the most sacred of all.

No matter how much suffering you may endure, no matter how poor you may be, no matter what illness you may be facing now, everything will surely become better.

This I can state with certainty.

I myself have suffered many injuries, have collapsed and broken bones. Even so, I am still able to walk.

And now, I truly walk and walk and walk—traveling throughout the country, visiting the prefectures where you live, performing purification in many places and returning again.

Thus, with these very feet, I walk about five hours a day.

And as a result, my legs have become stronger.

Yet the soles of my feet feel somewhat uncomfortable.

There is something like a hard lump or callus forming.

“For the first time at this age, I have experienced what happens when one walks so much.”

But behind this, when I go to various places, I carry with me the thoughts you send: “I come from such-and-such prefecture,” “I live in such-and-such prefecture.”

As I go there bearing those thoughts, your prayers connect with me, and I gain strength again.

And likewise, you who are sitting here are also giving strength to one another.

This too is not by chance.

Everyone, in their respective regions and differences, is interacting with one another, becoming a great vibration and serving humanity.

That is why, for me, being able to meet you like this, to pray with you, and to dedicate ourselves for the sake of the many peoples of the world is immeasurably precious in my life.

Therefore, when the time comes, you will truly be at peace.

GOI-sensei will gently descend, saying, "It is now time to go to the Divine World," and you will not suffer.

There will be no pain.

There is nothing to fear.

GOI-sensei will come to welcome you in a state of great comfort.

Thank you truly for praying for so long.

By my prayer alone, salvation would never be possible.

All of you—your INs formed at home, your daily prayers at home, and the meaning of your coming here—everything is equal; all are shining with Light.

Therefore, I assure you here and now.

GOI-sensei has appeared and is assuring you through me:

"Without any pain, at the final moment of your life, I will come gently to welcome you. You will go together with me into the world of God—the Divine World."

GOI-sensei has declared this.

Congratulations. How joyful this is. I too am filled with joy.

When I look at the national flags from around the world waving in this outdoor venue, I see that after a year they have become tattered and worn.

Do they get replaced in December? Or in May?

Perhaps they will become even more worn, but to see the flags of all nations fluttering like this—it is truly only here, at Japan's Fuji Sanctuary. Throughout the entire year, the flags of the nations—symbols of world peace—wave in the wind.

This, too, has been arranged through your Light of Love and your prayers.

It is not something that Byakko Shinko Kai could accomplish alone.

All of you, in unseen ways, are performing sacred and noble work, radiating Light everywhere.

Therefore, I hold all of you in the deepest respect and gratitude.

Let us continue walking together—praying and saving many people along the way.

Everyone, thank you most sincerely for showing your sacred presence here today.

I can declare this with certainty:

You will not suffer in your lifetime's final moments.

GOI-sensei will come swiftly, gently, and take you with Him.

Until that time, have no fear.

Even if you fall ill and are hospitalized, or even if you break a leg, you will recover.

Please, be at peace.

And with that, thank you very much.

< Masami-sensei descends to the outdoor venue and speaks while walking through the site >

Since everyone has come all this way, I'd like to come down and be with you for a bit. (Masami-sensei descends into the audience)

Good day to you all.

This energy—this vitality—is not my own.

It's yours. I'm receiving your energy.

But in return, Light from GOI-sensei is entering into you, so it's all right!
You're receiving it—plenty of it, plenty, plenty!

Everyone, you are so beautiful, truly beautiful—all of you.
Yes, everyone's face is so bright, so lovely. You are all beautiful.

Hai, hai... well, there's no end to this! No end.
It feels unfair, doesn't it? (Referring to the fact that some people can shake hands and others cannot)

But truly, I'm grateful to every one of you.
You will surely be able to accomplish your purpose.

GOI-sensei has already descended and is saying,
"You can absolutely do it. Don't ever give up or think your wishes are impossible. You can surely fulfill them with your own hands."

These are GOI-sensei's words.
Can you hear over there as well? I'll come to that side now—please wait a little, I don't want it to be unfair.

(Voice from the crowd: "I'm happy!")
No, I'm the one who's happy.
Because you're all praying, I'm taking in just a little bit of your energy here and there—and that's how I stay lively!
Yes, I'm borrowing your energy!

Thank you, everyone—you're such wonderful people.
You're happy, healthy, no need to worry about illness.
I even broke my hip once, but now look—I'm healed and moving quickly again!

(Sensing someone far away who wishes to shake her hand)
Oh, I feel it—yes, it's unfair if I only greet one.
No unfairness—none, none, none!

So now, I'll go around while looking at your faces.
Thank you, truly—thank you.

Everyone has such good faces. Such good faces.

Transparent, with no shadow, no greed, no desire for power—truly beautiful. Divine beings.

This is truly a gathering of Divine Beings.

You're all beautiful—beautiful!

Men are beautiful, women are beautiful, grandmothers are beautiful, young people are beautiful too.

Let's continue together.

From now on, Japan will shine. Everyone, please listen.

Beginning this year, Japan will become the center of the world—a peaceful nation.

This is GOI-sensei's declaration. Watch and see.

This is the result of your continual prayers.

More than nine out of ten Japanese people are not yet connected.

But what does it mean that there is such greatness within the Japanese people?

It is because the vibration of your prayers has entered into them.

The more you pray, the more you form the IN, the more people will connect to the Prayer for World Peace, and the more Japanese people will transform and elevate themselves.

Therefore, how precious your existence truly is.

Please praise yourselves.

Eternal joy and happiness will surely enter into you.

When you praise yourself, it comes in.

It's all right—you will be happy.

Wealth will flow in, health will be fulfilled, everything will be healed.

This is thanks to GOI-sensei's teachings and to the Prayer for World Peace.

From beginning to end, ours is the only organization that prays "May Peace Prevail on Earth" for the sake of humanity.

Please feel proud.

Respect yourself.

There is absolutely no need to be self-deprecating.

I hold this conviction.

I myself have broken bones here, lost the ability to walk, and fallen ill.

Even so, I travel throughout Japan, purifying the land in various regions, walking in obedience to GOI-sensei's command.

Someone who used to hardly walk has walked and walked and walked so much that the soles of my feet have become this thick.

Somehow calluses have formed, and it feels uncomfortable.

That is why all of your sacred energy—the Light energy of “May Peace Prevail on Earth”—has entered fully into me.

Let us continue together.

I guarantee it.

I guarantee it—it's not a lie.

You can see on my face that it is no lie.

So many familiar faces are here.

So many dear, familiar people.

If I greet one, I must greet all. (referring to handshakes)

I love you all, truly love you, and thank you sincerely for coming again today.

Coming from far away takes much money and effort, doesn't it?

Those who come from Tohoku, it's hard, isn't it?

It costs money, doesn't it?

【Yuka-sensei】

Masami-sensei, I'm truly sorry. Um... the staff are saying that it's about time to finish... because everyone has different schedules for returning home... so, if perhaps...

【Masami-sensei】

I understand. The staff are telling me, “Please let everyone go home soon.”

So, let's meet again, all right?

Good day to you. I love you all so much. I really wanted to see you.

Everyone, truly, thank you.

Thank you—everything is fine now, fine, fine.

Thank you for saying “It’s all right.”
Good day to you. Please, go home now.
This is the main path, isn’t it? See you again.

Ah, time is such a difficult thing, isn’t it?
I still want to meet so many more people.
I still want to speak to everyone even more.
Hai, good day to you. Let’s meet again very soon.

But please, let me say just this at the end.
The era of complete peace will surely come.
You will be happy. You will be surrounded by abundance.
Because you are praying.

Desire alone is not enough, you know that, right?
When you pray with your true self and become one with the vibration of Divinity,
then what you wish to become can indeed be realized.

Everyone, thank you so very much.
Stay well.

The End.
